

IMBEWU 'Seed' Community Dialogue South Africa

Join us for a three-day forum!

This forum and training supports a deeper dialogue that includes all voices, our stories, the difficult issues we are facing in society and community, our collective history and how we will create our future.

The forum takes place in Chesterville at the Community Hall. Your voice and participation is welcome and needed – whether you are part of the local community, or working with a government agency or NGO.

Where: Chesterville Community Hall, Chesterville, Durban

When: November 7th, 8th, 9th 2014 (10 am – 5pm each day)

*Registration from 9:30 am with tea and coffee
Lunch will be offered (free) each day.*

This project IMBEWU is led up by Lungile Hazel Nkosi-Hill together with facilitators Arlene and Jean-Claude Audergon of CFOR Force for Change.

All are welcome. Participation for the local community is free of charge. For local government agencies and NGOs, participation fee: R100
